Basic SQL For Testers – TEST

Name	Date
Mabaso Mkhabele	12-10-2026

Instructions

- Answer all the questions using an SQL editor or compiler (SSMS)
- Save your document using this format.
  - SQL Test - Name Surname
- Please make sure that your file is saved as an SQL file (.sql)
  - Eg: SQL Test – David Smith.sql
- Submit this pdf file with your Name and date captured together with your .sql file

---

1. Get all columns from the tables Customers, Orders and Suppliers

2. Get the names of all the contact persons where the person is a manager, alphabetically.

3. Get all orders placed on the 19th of May, 1997

4. Create a report that shows the CompanyName, Fax, Phone, Country, HomePage from the suppliers table sorted by the Country in descending order then by CompanyName in ascending order.

5. Create a report showing ProductName, UnitPrice, QuantityPerUnit of products that are out of stock.

6. Create a report showing all the ContactName, Address, City of all customers not from Germany, Mexico, Spain.

7. Create a report that shows the average, minimum and maximum UnitPrice of all products as AveragePrice, MinimumPrice and MaximumPrice respectively.

8. Create a report that shows the FirstName, LastName of all employees that do not report to anybody.

9. Create a report that shows the ShipPostalCode, OrderID, OrderDate, RequiredDate, ShippedDate, ShipAddress of all orders with ShipPostalCode beginning with "98124".

10. Create a report that shows the LastName, FirstName, City of employees in cities other than "Seattle";

11. Create a report that shows the ContactName, ContactTitle, CompanyName of customers that have no "Sales" in their ContactTitle.

12. Create a report that shows the CustomerID, sum of Freight, from the orders table with sum of freight greater 200, for each CustomerID.

13. Create a report that shows the SupplierID, CompanyName, CategoryName, ProductName and UnitPrice from the products, suppliers and categories table.

14. Create a report that shows the order ids and the associated employee names for orders that shipped after the required date (37 rows)

15. Create a report that shows the total quantity of products (from the Order_Details table) ordered. Only show records for products for which the quantity ordered is fewer than 200 (5rows)

16. Create a report that shows the total number of orders by Customer since December 31,1996. The report should only return rows for which the total number of orders is greater than 15 (5 rows)

17. Create a report that shows the ProductName, and UnitPrice and the corresponding CompanyName from Suppliers

18. Create a report that shows the ProductName and Total costs of the orders whose total cost is above 200.

19. Create a report showing OrderID, total number of Order ID as NumberofOrders from the orderdetails table grouped by OrderID and sorted by NumberofOrders in descending order.

20. Create a report that shows the SupplierID, ProductName, CompanyName from all product Supplied by Exotic Liquids, Specialty Biscuits, Ltd., Escargots Nouveaux sorted by the supplier ID .